UNIVERSITY SCHOOL HISTORY

The first semester of the program that is now The University School began in spring 1982 with five preschool children. That first class was held in a classroom in the School of Nursing. The idea developed in what was then The University of Tulsa’s Department of Special Education. During that semester, Dr. Hollingsworth was hired to be the teacher for the 1982-83 school year.

Year 1: 1982-1983
- The University of Tulsa Preschool Enrichment Program moved to 206 Lorton Hall. Monday/Wednesday morning and Tuesday/Thursday afternoon sessions – twelve students each.
- Used campus Art Department, Music Department and McFarlin Library for enrichment activities.
- Spring 1983-Dr. Hollingsworth began the thematically based Friday Rainbow Art Program.
- Parents requested kindergarten be offered for the following year.
- Program administrated through the College of Education and its dean, Dr. Bruce Howell.

Year 2: 1983-1984
- Program changed its name to the Gifted Enrichment Program of The University of Tulsa Stoia Learning Center.
- Began Word Works.
- First semester-the kindergarten used Lorton Auditorium as a classroom
- Second semester-the kindergarten moved upstairs in Lorton.
- Prior to the end of this school year, parents were again requesting that grades be added.
- Dr. Howell approved the program to go through the third grade.
- A former apartment building used by the Psychology Department was renovated for the 1984-85 school year. Dr. Hollingsworth involved students in designing the wooden playground structure.
- Staff development sessions with Dr. Howell emphasized the important of maintaining our experimental, alternative education approach to our curriculum. He advised that we never seek fixed into grade levels and directed us to formulate our goals and purposes.
- Summer 1984—University of Oregon—Dr. Hollingsworth began writing the Enaction Curriculum which emphasizes active learning.
