LINC'S MISSION

Leader's Incorporated (LINC) was started four years ago and has been recognized as one of The University of Tulsa's Top Ten Organizations. Our goal is to offer current students a great opportunity to get involved and share their experiences and the knowledge they have gained from college life with incoming minority students. We want to help new minority students become involved on campus, by developing and enhancing their leadership skills, so that they can be successful students. We believe it is important to build a foundation of peer support that will help minority students transition into the college environment, while providing them the tools essential for success at TU.

MENTEE

MENTEES

LINC's mentor program will help you become involved on campus and develop and enhance your leadership skills. We want you to have the tools necessary to succeed and to provide you with a network of peer support that will help you, as a minority student, transition into the college environment.

Working with Your Mentor

The program works by pairing you with an upperclassman who will serve as your mentor. An evening retreat in the Fall will allow you to get to know your mentor and begin your LINC experience. You will then meet regularly with your mentor so he/she can offer guidance and advice on any questions or concerns you may have about classes or adjusting to college life. In addition, each LINC pair will be given a faculty/administrator mentor who will be available for guidance and support as the need arises.

We want you to have the tools necessary to succeed.

Educational Programs and Events

You will have the chance to attend workshops conducted by the LINC program that highlight important collegiate and professional skills, such as time management, study tips, and how to dress for success. Finally, let's not forget about all the fun our program has to offer. Throughout the year there will be several opportunities for all of our members to enjoy planned off-campus activities, such as movie nights at AMC, Laser Quest, and Paintball.

Who Can Apply?

Any incoming freshman or transfer student is eligible for the LINC program. If you are interested in finding a mentor to help you adjust to life on campus, apply today! You can stop by our office at The University of Tulsa, 51 Holmes Student Center, 800 South Tucker Drive, Tulsa, OK 74104. You can also apply online at www.utulsa.edu/studentaffairs. Find the application under "Multicultural Student Programs". If you have any questions or would like to hear more about our program you can call our office at (918)-631-2327 or send us an e-mail at LINC@utulsa.edu.
