The University of Tulsa
Institutional Learning Outcomes

The University of Tulsa has developed five overarching Institutional Learning Outcomes that align with the University Mission Statement. Academic programs and co-curricular outcomes are mapped to institutional outcomes to ensure alignment of educational programs and activities with the broader goals of the institution.

Undergraduate students who graduate from the University of Tulsa will be able to:

ILO 1: Demonstrate literacy through informed inquiry and application of knowledge in the sciences, humanities, and arts.

ILO 2: Think critically by analyzing, synthesizing, and evaluating information.

ILO 3: Write and present clearly, practicing the skills of effective communication across the curriculum.

ILO 4: Recognize ethical dilemmas and determine how best to respond to them.

ILO 5: Apply knowledge and talents to identify and address real world problems in the local or global community.
