ARTICLE I - OBJECTIVE & DEFINITIONS

In accordance with the preamble to the Constitution of The Faculty Senate of The University of Tulsa, this Senate is "...to provide a forum in which the elected representatives of the faculty may, without restraint, freely express their thoughts on issues of specific and general concern to the members of the academic community."

“Regular Faculty” are the full-time resident faculty as defined in section I.D.1.a of the 2004 Statement on Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure, or its successor documents, except Academic Administrators as defined below. Explicitly excluded are those faculty holding full-time administrative positions at or above the collegiate level.

A “Faculty Senator” is a member of the Regular Faculty who has been duly elected to the Faculty Senate in accordance with Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws.

An “Academic Administrator” is an administrator, at or above the collegiate level, who holds a tenure or tenure-track faculty appointment.

An “Academic Administrator Senator” is an ex officio administrative member of the Faculty Senate, including the Provost, President of the University, Collegiate Deans, and Dean of the Graduate School.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERS

Section 1. Membership of the Faculty Senate shall consist of the Faculty Senators duly elected by their respective colleges and Academic Administrator Senators. Academic Administrator Senators are non-voting members of the Faculty Senate.

Section 2. The procedure for election of Faculty Senators shall be determined by each of the colleges: however, it must be an open process that permits the nomination of any eligible candidate by any faculty member who is eligible to vote. The Faculty Senate shall be the judge of the election and qualification of its members.

Section 3. Those eligible to vote in the election of Faculty Senators and eligible to be elected as Faculty Senators are the Regular Faculty who will have completed at least one year of service at the University prior to the beginning of the next Senate term. Explicitly excluded are those who hold any type of visiting appointment, unless the faculty contract stipulates that the time under such appointment shall count towards the tenure probation period; in this circumstance, the faculty member can vote, but cannot be elected.

Section 4. Apportionment of seats in the Faculty Senate to the colleges shall be based on the number of full-time resident faculty members from each college who are eligible to vote. A faculty member holding joint appointments will be counted for purposes of apportionment as a member only of the college where he or she holds a tenure or tenure-track position. In all other cases representation shall be based on the college of primary appointment.

Section 5. Each January, each college or Provost shall submit to the Steering Committee a list of all faculty eligible to be elected by their college faculty and an additional list of those eligible to vote in such election, providing the date of appointment, rank, and term of contract.

Section 6. Each February, the Steering Committee shall determine the apportionment of seats in the Faculty Senate to the colleges for the following year, and shall advise each college of the number of senators to be elected in the regular spring election and their terms of office.

Section 7. Elections shall be held by April 15 of each year. Every year, each College shall also elect at least two standing alternates. Each college will report the names of newly elected Faculty Senators and the ordered list of alternates to the President of the Senate by April 15. The terms of Faculty Senators shall be three years and shall begin June 1.

Section 8. When a Faculty Senator resigns or is otherwise unable to continue to serve, that position becomes vacant as of the effective date of the resignation or incapacity. If a Faculty Senator is unable to attend a senate meeting, that senator should have one of the alternate senators from the same college attend in the senator's place, as a full voting member. If a senator misses a total of four regular meetings of the Faculty Senate during a Senate year, June 1 to May 31, without being represented by an alternate senator, that position becomes vacant as of the date of the fourth missed meeting.

Section 9. When during a Senate year, June 1 to May 31, a Faculty Senator's position becomes vacant, that position will be filled by the first standing alternate of the respective college. If called, the standing alternate will serve until the next regularly scheduled election. Any additional vacancy from the same college will be filled by the next standing alternate of that college. If no other standing alternate has been elected, that position remains vacant until a new replacement has been elected, with all deliberate speed, according to Section 2. The president of the Faculty Senate shall notify the standing alternate and the respective college of the need to fill a vacancy.

Section 12. If the office of the President becomes vacant, the Vice President shall assume that office and the office of the Vice President will become vacant.

Section 13. If the office of the Vice President becomes vacant, the Faculty Senate, at its next

For called meetings not by petition, one week's notice shall be required; the notice shall include the date, time, place, and agenda of the called meeting. For called meetings by petition, the President shall provide notice of the date, time, place, and agenda within one week of the President's recognition of a valid petition.
