

University of Tulsa
Institutional Learning Outcomes
University Assessment Committee
May 16, 2018

Institutional Learning Outcome One	Demonstrate literacy through information inquiry and application of knowledge in the sciences, humanities, and arts.
Institutional Learning Outcome Two	Think critically by analyzing, synthesizing, and evaluating information.
Institutional Learning Outcome Three	Write and present clearly, practicing the skills of effective communication across the curriculum.
Institutional Learning Outcome Four	Recognize ethical dilemmas and determine how best to respond to them.
Institutional Learning Outcome Five	Apply knowledge and talents to identify and address real world problems in the local or global community.

Acknowledgement: The development of learning outcomes and foci were adapted from the Liberal Education and America's Promise (LEAP) by Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U)