Most affordable private research university in America's heartland.

$25,000 tuition & fees

The University of Tulsa has announced that beginning with the fall 2027 entering class, undergraduate tuition and mandatory university fees will be $25,000 per year and guaranteed at that rate for four years. Students must be enrolled in 12-18 hours to receive this rate.

This initiative makes UTulsa the most affordable private research university in America's heartland and allows the university to serve as a leader in clearer pricing and increased accessibility at higher education institutions nationwide.
